NEWSPAPER LAWS.—We would call the special attention of Post Masters and subscribers to the INQUIRER to the following synopsis of the Newspaper laws:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter, (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster reponsible to the publishers for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuence until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it, if he takes it out of the Post Office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post office, or removing and having them uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

ITEMS.

THE Prussian Bible Society in Berlin has distributed since its foundation in 1814 more than three millions of copies of the Holy Scriptures. In the year 1867 alone the number was 90,000.

A SEMINARY has lately been founded near Berlin to educate preachers and teachers for the German emigrants in North America. It is called the Sterenhaus (star-house) after the banner of the United States.

WHEN Asa Packer was a member of Congress, during the session of nine months, he was only in attendance fifty four days, yet he drew pay for the whole time. Do the people of Pennsylvania want such a man for their Governor?

THE Democratic papers fly at the head of their columns "For Governor, Asa Packer, of Carbon County," and then they declare that he does not live there at all, but that his home is in Philadelphia. Why can't they tell the truth?—Lebanon Courier.

WHY does not the Democratic State Central Committee furnish the people of Pennsylvania with the record of Cyrus L. Pershing? His votes in the Legislature during the war, on all measures looking to the support of our soldiers in the field, would prove instructive reading to loyal men.

IT is estimated by the Treasury officials that the public debt statement this month will show a further decrease of $10,000,000. The good work goes bravely on. Republican integrity in the collection and disbursement of the revenues, is steadily and surely pulling down the public debt.

THE cattle disease is dying out fast in Prussia. In the province of Bradenburg special precautions have been abandoned in the districts of Lebus, Landsberg, and Sternberg, with the exception of two or three small localities. In the province of Prussia proper no new cases have appeared for weeks.

THE Chambersburg Repository says that the Democratic aspirants for the Congressional nomination next fall are taking time by the forelock. There are already in the field from that district viz: Wm. S. Stenger, of the Valley Spirit, B. F. Meyers, of the Harrisburg Patriot, and Alexander Coffroth, an ex-M. C. Thus far Stenger is ahead.

AN exchange says the copperheads are busy at secret work. They are canvassing every district in the county, and expect to get out their full vote. They think they are catching the Republicans napping, and are already congratulating each other on their expected gain. Republicans, will you sleep while the enemy are working for your overthrow?

THE Chicago Republican of Tuesday says: "The jury called for the trial of criminal causes in this Court was discharged yesterday morning by Judge McAllister apparently for the reason that their general appearance was scarcely more creditable than the prisoners arraigned."

THE St. Crispins, in Massachusetts, who have 110 lodges with a membership of over 30,000, have made arrangements to purchase coal in Philadelphia and flour in the West, and to transport them to that State for their use. They expect to obtain these articles by this means at a very cheap rate.

A FRENCH convict, after having served twenty-five years imprisonment for his crime at Cayenne, returned to France and attracted the attention of the police by his lavish expenditure of money. He was arrested, and stated that he had found the money of the man whom he had murdered in the place where he had concealed it.

A domestic romance comes from New York. Twenty-two years ago a couple were married, had one son, lived together ten years, and then, after losing all their property, procured a divorce. The woman married again, and got a fortune; the husband didn't, and remained poor. And now that the woman has become a rich widow, she has re-married her first husband.

AN enterprising colored man in Trenton, N. J., devised a petition to the common council of that city, asking for an enlargement of the school house for colored children. It occurred to him that the signitures of certain white folks might be serviceable, and he applied for and obtained a large number. The petition commences, "We, the parents of the colored children!"

SOME excitement has been created at Columbus, Miss., by the appearance there of four immense insects, supposed to be Egyptain locusts. They were three times as large as the common locusts, with large black eyes, legs of great strength, feathers like a Shanghai chicken, tails similarly adorned, and a hard shell covering. The like of them was never seen before by the oldest inhabitants.

THE last surviving soldier of the Revolution pensioned under the general laws died in 1867, and of the two soldiers pensioned by special acts of Congress, David F. Bakeman, of New York, survived at the date of last year's pension report. Nancy Serena, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the only survivor of revolutionary widows married prior to the close of the war. Of those married to soldiers of the Revolution since January 1, 1793, 888 remained upon the rolls November 1, 1868, but as the decrease by death in the year preceding that date amounted to 109, the number will now probably not reach 800. The total amount of pensions paid to revolutionary soldiers is $46,082,175, and to their widows and orphans, $19,254,755. The revolutionary widows will disappear from the rolls with increasing ratio each year, and in a short time the revolutionary pension list will have ceased to exist.

NATHANIEL MAPES, residing near Tunkhannock, was recently bitten in the hand by a "pet" rattlesnake. His hand and arm soon became much swollen, and turned to a dark spotted color for some days, but by reason of the copious flow of blood produced by the fangs of the snake, or the prompt application of proper remedies, or both, no very great inconvenience has been experienced by him. This interesting pet, one of the largest of his species, having twelve rattles, had been captured a few weeks previously—had been kept in a box about the mill as a curiosity. His teeth or fangs having been drawn out, he was supposed to be harmless, and was therefore handled by his keeper in a careless way. After the ungrateful bite, it was found that new fangs to the length of nearly an inch had grown since the first dental operation on him.

Poetry.

INDIAN SUMMER.

Just after the death of the flowers,
And before they are buried in snow,
There comes a festival season,
When nature is all aglow—
Aglow with a mystical splendor
That rivals the beauties of Spring—
Aglow with a beauty more tender
Than aught which fair Summer could bring.

Some spirit akin to the rainbow,
Then borrows its magical dyes,
And mantles the far spreading landscape
In hues that bewilder the eyes.
The Sun from its cloud-pillowed chamber
Smiles soft on a vision so gay,
And dreams that his favorite children,
The flowers have not yet passed away.

There's a luminous mist on the mountains,
A light, azure haze in the air,
As if angels, while heavenward soaring,
Had left their bright robes floating there;
The breeze is so soft, so caressing,
It seems a mute token of love,
And floats to the heart like a blessing,
From some happy spirit above.

These days so serene and so charming,
Awaken a dreamy delight—
A tremulous, tearful enjoyment,
Like soft strains of music at night;
We know they're fading and fleeting,
That quickly, too quickly they'll end,
And we watch them with a yearning affection,
As at parting we watch a dear friend.

Oh! beautiful Indian Summer!
Thou favorite child of the year,
Thou darling whom Nature enriches,
With gifts and adornments so dear!
How fain would we woo thee to linger
On mountains and meadow awhile,
For our hearts, like the sweet haunts of Nature,
Rejoice and grow young in thy smile.

Miscellaneous.

ALDERMAN M'MULLIN.

This notorious Philadelphia desperado, the associate of thieves and rowdies, and, at the same time, a prominent leader of the Democracy, played a bold part the other day in the Board of Aldermen, while that body was engaged in the appointment of election officers for the Fourth ward, the ward in which he resides, and where, among the Democracy, he exercises the power of a despot—his word being the law by which they are governed. While the question on the election of certain officers named (who were objectionable to Alderman M'Mullin) was pending, the following dialogue, as reported in the Philadelphia Buletin, took place:

Alderman M'Mullin—They can never go there. I will bet a hundred dollars on it.

Alderman Jones—We will have to move the ward out, then.

Alderman M'Mullin—When the day of election comes we will crowd the place with men.

The Chair—Alderman, you should be ashamed of yourself. I am surprised that you make threats.

Alderman M'Mullin—On election day don't let them go in. There will be murder if they do.

Alderman Cloud moved that the resolution as read be adopted.

Alderman M'Mullin proposed as an amendment a long list of names.

Alderman Cloud moved to lay the amendment on the table.

Alderman M'Mullin characterized the motion as being unfair.

The Chair said the question was not debatable.

Alderman M'Mullin—Well, there will be trouble there then.

The Chair—The gentleman should be ashamed of making threats.

Alderman Jones asked that the room be cleared.

Alderman M'Mullin—You had better attempt to put them out; you will see what you will get. There will be three or four thousand men let loose on the day of election.

The motion to lay upon the table was agreed to.

Alderman Jones called the previous question, which was the adoption of the resolution. Agreed to.

The resolution, as read by the clerk, was then agreed to. The Chair declared the names as the officers to conduct the election in October.

Alderman M'Mullin—You will have club law, then on election day.

The Chair—It is beneath your dignity to make any such threats, or use such language."

This bold and bloody threat of club law and murder—this open and shameless declaration of resistence to law and breach of the peace, was made by M'Mullin, himself an alderman, in the face of the Board and in utter disregard of the moral sense of the sober-minded citizens of Philadelphia. The man himself is regardless of all moral and legal restraints. Bill M'Mullin is a reckless desperado, ready at any time to perform what he threatens, and we may therefore expect serious trouble in the Fourth ward on the day of election. But if the Alderman is a villain, he is not a sneaking one, and in this respect differs from some other leaders of his party. He has openly proclaimed his intention of resorting to violence, and committing "murder," if necessary to prevent the officers of election, regularly and legally chosen, from acting. The citizens of Philadelphia being thus "forewarned" of the impending danger, will no doubt be prepared to meet and overcome it. But what must the decent Democracy think of a leader who thus declares his intention to become a murderer unless he can have men of like character to act as officers of election in his ward? They should feel ashamed of even party association with such an ingrained scoundrel; and yet it is notorious that this same bloody minded Bill M'Mullin ruled the State Convention that nominated Packer, and played a conspicuous part in buying delegates to vote for him. To him, in fact, more than to any other man, Packer owes his nomination; and not a Democratic paper in the State dares now to condemn his brutal conduct in the Board of Aldermen. M'Mullin rules them all.

BE not proud of riches, but afraid of them lest they be a silver bar to cross the way to heaven. You must answer for riches, but riches cannot answer for you.

He Truckles to Traitors in Europe, and Disgusts his Traveling Companions.

He Builds a Mansion near his University for the Niece of Jeff. Davis.!!

She is Supported in Luxury and Splendor by Asa the Copperhead!!

Jeff. Davis' Brother, Col. Joe Davis of the Rebel army, now a Guest of the Democratic Candidate!!

How Poor Loyal Men fare while He Maintains Rebels in Opulent Splendor!!

The Increase of Tolls on the Lehigh Road since May last, Fifty-Seven Cents per ton!!

The "Poor Man's Friend" makes the Poor Man Pay for the Support of Jeff. Davis' Brother and Niece!!

The Consumers of Coal Robbed of One Thousand Dollars a Day to Pamper Rebels, and Corrupt the Voters!

How the Half Million Gift was made to the Lehigh University!!

Pennsylvania Robbed to Corrupt the Popular Morals, and Clothe Traitors in Purple and Fine Linen!!

One Thousand Dollars a Day Extorted from the Poor to make Packer Governor!!

$30,000 PER MONTH!!

$360,000 Per Year "Special Tax!"

With a desire to show Asa Packer up before the people whose votes he solicits on the second Tuesday of October, and desiring to do him no injustice, we wrote to one of his neighbors, a gentleman of unimpeachable integrity, to give us such reliable proofs of Packer's alleged extortions and Rebel sympathies as might be depended on, and proven when assailed. While we were fully convicted of his turpitude and treason, we confess we were unprepared for the iniquitous depths of this bad man's record during the war and since its close.

The astounding revelations of our correspondent will startle every one, and it must disgust every man not sunk in the bigotry of party and hopelessly given over to complicity with any crime which may be committed by a Democrat. Our correspondent says, "since May last the Lehigh Valley Railroad, of which Asa Packer owns three-fifths, has advanced its tolls 57 cents per ton on coal. The tolls in May were 81 cents per ton; in June 94 cents; in July $1 15; and in August and September $1 38 per ton. The amount of coal shipped on that road in the dullest month was 88,000 tons, and this all comes off the consumers." It will thus appear that the advance in four months has been as follows, on 90,000 tons per month:

Advance in June 5c. per ton	.....	$4,500 00
" July 34c. "	.....	30,600 00
" Aug. 57c. "	.....	51,300 00
" Sept. 57c. "	.....	51,300 00
Total extorted in 4 months	.....	$137,700 00

Or $54,425 per month—just $1,110.50 per day!

To add anything to this shameful, grasping robbery of the poor for the sake of an office by Asa Packer would be idleness. But what follows, showing his bitter hostility to his native land, and his cringing adulation of rebels, is a separate and lonely baseness, in the depths of which his other groveling seems honorable. Our correspondent proceeds: "When Packer was in Europe, (I have this from one of his traveling companions), he was hobnobbing with Breckinridge, Slidell and Jake Thompson, while his companions refused to be introduced to them. He has built a house near his University for the widow of Senator Broadhead, the niece and adopted daughter of Jeff. Davis; and when Davis was released from Fortress Monroe Packer went to New York, expressly to meet him, while he was en route to Canada. Col. Joe Davis, of the rebel army, a brother of Jeff., is now an occupant of the House built by Packer for Jeff. Davis' niece." We add no comments. We only desire to say that if any man desires to assure himself of these disgraceful facts about the Democratic candidate for Governor of our State, we will endeavor to assist him if he will call at our office.

Loyal Pennsylvanians! How does Packer suit you?—Harrisburg Telegraph.

HOW TO MAKE A LOVING WIFE.

A correspondent sends the following to the Phrenological Journal:

If you would have a loving wife, be as gentle in your words after as before marriage; treat her quite as tenderly when a matron as when a miss; don't make her the maid of all work, and ask her why she looks less tidy and neat than when you "first knew her;" don't buy cheap, tough beef, and scold because it does not come on the table "porter-house;" don't grumble about squalling babies if you cannot afford a "nursery," and remember that "baby may take after his papa" in his disposition; don't smoke and chew tobacco, and thus shatter your nerves, spoil your temper, and make your breath a nuisance, and complain that your wife declines to kiss you; go home joyous and cheerful to supper, and tell your tired wife the good news you have heard, and not silently put on your hat and go out to the "club" or "lodge," and let her afterward learn that you spent the evening at the opera or fancy ball with Mrs. Dash. Love your wife; be patient; remember you are not perfect, but try to be; let whisky, tobacco and vulgar company alone, spend your evenings with your wife, live a decent, Christian life, and she will be loving and true—if you did not marry a heartless beauty without sense or worth; if you did, who is to blame if you suffer the consequences?

IN Mississippi the Democracy are supporting a negro for Secretary of State. Oh, consistency, thou art a jewel.

THE MAUCH CHUNK WAR MEETING.

For some time past the Democratic papers in this State have been trying to make capital for Asa Packer by publishing and commenting on the proceedings of a war meeting held at Mauch Chunk during Lee's invasion, and in which Mr. P. participated. Such tactics on the part of papers that never said a word in favor of the war while it was in progress, but, on the contrary, frequently denounced it as unnecessary, unconstitutional, and cruel, is somewhat remarkable, and noteworthy as showing a great change of sentiment, or, otherwise, contemptible hypocrisy. But be this as it may, they will fail utterly in their purpose, which is to create a soldier sentiment in favor of their candidate. The brave men who served in the ranks of the army during the war have had too wide a field of experience to be easily imposed upon. They know who sustained and who opposed the war, and no death bed repentance, or hypocritical pretense of patriotism on the part of the latter can mislead or deceive them. In regard to the Mauch Chunk meeting, the simple facts will show how little credit attaches to Asa Packer for the part he played. The meeting was held during Lee's invasion, when every property holder in the State trembled for the safety of his possessions; and Asa Packer, who had opposed the war while it only "thundered in the distance," shook like Belshazzer in all his members when it approached his own door. He was moved, in what he did, by self interest, not by patriotism and loyalty.

In order to show clearly the part he acted and the credit he deserves, we republish the following from the Mauch Chunk Gazette:

"Judge Packer's presence at the war meeting, was caused entirely by the prevalent fear that the rebel raiders were coming over into the coal region to tear up the railroads, destroy property generally and, especially, put an end to the coal supplies, which were vital to our government. His whole conduct on that occasion, in nervously urging men to volunteer, was totally at variance with his course during all the preceding years of the war, and so soon as this imminent danger had passed away, he subsided at once into his former lethargic indifference to the country's fate. This proves conclusively enough, that his momentary zeal was caused entirely by selfish considerations. In short, his conduct in that matter, was on a par with his course concerning his taxes. He cared nothing for the country, but everything for his own property..

"All this has been fully shown before. But, the Packer organ here, being reduced to the most desperate straits, has hunted up the resolutions passed at that meeting, and published them as representing the sentiments of Mr. Packer. This may be called decidedly rich. The committee which drafted the resolurions numbered fifteen, comprising many of our most undoubted and enthusiactic loyalist, both Republacans and War Democrats, including Dr. D. Shoemaker, Joshua Bullock, and others of equal prominence. Asa Packer's name was the second from the last in the list. He had no hand in drawing up the resolutions, but when they were read to the whole committee, he objected to all the more emphatic and positive statements of Union sentiments, and succeeded in getting several sentences modified, which reflected severely upon Northern sympathizers with the rebellion. One clause in particular, which denounced "traitors, both North and South," was erased entirely in consequence of his violent opposition to it.

"We desire it to be distinctly understood, in the remotest corners of the State, as it is known here, in his home, that the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, was in the closest sympathy with the Peace or Secession wing of the Northern Democracy, that he was one of those who rejoiced in our defeats and mourned over our victories."

DO YOU COMPREHEND the PERIL!

In 1871 the Legislature will have devolved upon it the duty of apportioning Pennsylvania both for Congressional and Legislative representation. Both of these apportionments have not fallen on the same year since 1801, and will not fall on the same year again till 1941. This consideration is of the utmost political importance.

It has been demonstrated in all the recent contests in this State, that the Republicans have a handsome majority of the votes on a full poll, and that the Democrats hold a majority of the counties. Every experienced politician comprehends that the State can be divided into Congressional and Legislative districts, on purely territorial bases, and in conformity with the letter of the Constitution, while giving the minority the larger part of the representation. This would be to contemn and frustrate the essential spirit of a democracy, which inculcates that the majority shall rule.

Every politician comprehends, moreover, that the State can be districted with due reference to territorial considerations, and yet respect the intrinsic rights of the majority to govern, thus complying with the spirit as well as the letter of the Constitution.

That this may be done, it is indispensable that General Geary be re-elected to the governorship. With Mr. Packer in the Executive chamber, apportionment bills might be coerced which would strip the Republicans of power, and hand over the control to the Democrats, though these should be found at every recurring election thenceforward to be in a decided minority on the popular vote.

We press this point. If the Republicans of this State do not wish to find themselves shorn of power, and to have their mouths stopped from uttering reasonable complaints, they must demonstrate at the coming election by the re-election of Governor Geary that their array is unbroken, that they are the majority, and hence have the natural and legal right to govern. Nothing will satisfy the requirements of the present case but a round majority of lawful ballots. Republicans! if you fail in this, multiplied disasters will be likely to come upon you. Having the power, see to it that you use it effectively.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

EVERY Republican will appreciate the importance of the present campaign, in view of the fact that the election of Pershing would give the Democracy the control of the Supreme Court of the State, and enable them again, as last year, to deluge us with fraudulent naturalization papers.

HORACE GREELEY'S OLD DRIVER.

The old story of Horace Greeley's ride over the mountains to Placerville has been much laughed over, but not generally believed. But at Reno we found the identical driver, Mr. Hank Monk by name, sporting a watch presented by the citizens of Placerville in honor of that ride, inscribed, "Be seated, Horace, and I'll take you through in time." He drove Mr. Wade from near Virginia City to Reno. He came out from the latter place by request to do this driving as a matter of compliment.

Mr. Monk is a slight, wiry man of medium stature, with a round face, blue eyes which look deep, and with a solemn expression of countenance which suggests a curtain drawn there over the very abode of mischief. His gloves told of four-in hand under full headway, and a loose scarf around his neck was another insignia of his office.

"Mr. Monk, you drove Mr. Greeley pretty fast," said Mr. Wade. Mr. Monk looked unutterable things, but replied quietly, "we went a pretty fair gait."

"Mr. Greeley was a little frightened we are told?"

"I guess Horace was a little scared," was his reply.

He then went on to tell and embelished with much twinkling of eyes and evident inward enjoyment, how he started under orders to make Placerville in time for the lecture Mr. Greeley was to deliver; how he drew out slowly to let his team get in good trim, and how he slowly, very slowly, ascended the mountains; how Mr. Greeley frequently consulted his watch, and leaned out of the window to ask if it would be possible to reach Placerville in time. So all the way up the long mountain Mr. Greeley was continually inquiring:

"Mr. Monk, don't you think that we had better drive a little faster?" and Mr. Monk was often replying, "Don't give yourself any concern, Mr. Greeley, I'll take you through in time."

But no sooner was the descent begun, with a crack of the lash from the driver, and a slight setting of the break, for fear of an accident, than one class of fears abandoned Mr. Greeley's breast to make room for another. Mr. Monk asserts that he had hardly got under headway before Mr. Greeley shouted, "Mr. Monk, do you think that there is any need for such hurry?" and then, "Mr. Monk, we seem to be getting ahead of time," and next, "Mr. Monk, I believe I will give up the idea of lecturing to-night;" and last of all, "Mr. Monk, I have given up that lecture, had'nt we better slow up a little?" To all of which Mr. Monk made answer: "I have my orders, Mr. Greeley, I think we will get in in time; be seated, sir, I have my orders." And so at last Mr. Greeley got in, first to the tavern and then to his bed. But the story is old. For us it will henceforth be true, since we have laid eyes on Mr. Monk, and heard him tell the tale.

WEALTH.

One great cause of the poverty of the present day is, the failure of the common people to appreciate small things, They feel that if they cannot save large sums they will not save anything. They do not realize how a daily addition, be it ever so small, will soon make a large pile. If the young men and young women of to-day will only begin, and begin now, to save a little from their earnings, and plant it in the soil of some good savings bank, and weekly or monthly add their mite, they will wear a happy smile of confidence and independence when they reach middle life. Not only the pile itself will increase, but the desire and ability to increase it will also grow. Let clerk and tradesmen, laborer and artisan, make now and at once a beginning. Store up some of your youthful force and vigor for future contingency. Let parents teach their children to begin early to save. Begin at the fountain-head to control the stream of extravagance, and then work will be easy. To choose between spending and saving is to choose between poverty and riches. Let your youth go on in habits of extravagance, for fifty years to come, as they have for fifty years past, and we shall be a nation of beggars with a moneyed aristocracy. Let a generation of such as save in small sums be reared, and we shall be free from want. Do not be ambitious for extravagant fortunes, but do seek that which is the duty of every one to obtain independence and a comfortable home. Wealth and enough is within the reach of all. It is obtainable by one process, and by only one—saving.

VOTER, DON'T FORGET,

That John W. Geary has proved himself a gallant soldier as well as a good Governor!

That on the 28th of June, 1861, he was mustered into the service as a Colonel and successfully fought those who attempted to destroy the Union!

That on the 25th of April, 1862, he was promoted Brigadier General!

That on the 11th of January, 1865, he was made Major-General!

That he was wounded at Bolivar, Cedar Mountain, and Chancellorsville!

That to the present day he carries rebel lead in his body!

That as Mayor of San Francisco!
Governor of Kansas!
Military Governor of Savannah!
And, finally, as Governor of Pennsylvania!

He has invariably discharged the duties imposed upon him with honor to himself and credit to his native State!

Who can show a better record?

We ask you, then, to work from now until election day for the continuance in office of this faithful public servant. Let it not be said that you discarded a man you knew to be true and faithful for one who had nothing but money to recommend him for the high office he seeks.—Tunkhannock Republican.

BATHING IN OIL.—It has often been asked whether it would be possible for a man to swim in oil. The question was practically solved, the other day, by a workman employed in an oil manufactory at Nice, who fell into a tank of olive oil nine feet deep. He was an expert swimmer, but he went to the bottom like a plummet, and was only saved from drowning by the timely aid of a comrade. Oil is too light to swim in; it is not sufficiently buoyant, and does not offer the resistance necessary to keep a man afloat. On the other hand it is worth knowing that if a bath in oil offers dangers to swimmers; there are occasions on which it may be of valuable use; for it is the best remedy for serious burns. A German ballet girl, whose dress had caught fire, and who had been horribly burned in consequence, was put into a bath of oil by the chief physician of the Leipsic Hospital. She was suffering atrocious agonies: but the oil caused her pains to cease almost immediately. She remained in the bath nine days and nights, the oil being renewed five times during that period; and her burns were then so far healed that she could be taken out without pain or danger USEFUL HINTS.—A bit of glue dissolved in skim milk will restore crape.

Strong ley put in water will make it as soft as rain water.

Half a cranberry, it is said, bound on a corn, will soon kill it.

Ribbons of every kind should be washed in suds and not rinsed.

Scotch snuff put in holes where crickets come out will destroy them.

A bit of soap rubbed on the hinges of doors will prevent their creaking.

Wood ashes and common salt wet with water will stop the crack of a stove.

If your flat irons are rough, rub them with fine salt and it will make them smooth.

If you wish to avoid a cold, keep your mouth shut. The same plan also keeps the teeth from getting sunburnt and people from noticing them if they are.

PROF. HENRY, in the meeting of the Academy of Sciences at Hartford, speaking of the electric spark, said he "could judge better of the duration of the spark when seen perpendicularly than horizontally." When it appeared in print it read: "He could better judge of the duration of the squash when seen perpendicularly than horizontally." That is equal to Mr. Burlingame's eloquent allusion to the "granite shaft" on Bunker Hill—but which was printed the "grog shop" on Bunker Hill.

AN anecdote is told of a German student in theology, who, after waiting an unconscionable time for admission, appeared before the examiner "bearded like a pard." The learned examiner fell back, astonished, exclaiming, "A student in theology with a beard!" "A beard!" cried the student, with an air of equal astonishment, and putting his hand up to his face, "bless me, why it must have grown while I have been waiting in the ante-room!"

SHOULD Asa Packer be elected, the influences that will surround him will be most atrocious. Bill McMullen, the notorious rowdy and outlaw of Philadelphia, is his bosom friend, and will be one of his confidential advisers in case of his election. Do the people of Pennsylvania desire to see the Executive of their State controlled by such influences? If they do not, let them elect John W. Geary for their Governor.

A GENTLEMAN riding, came to the edge of a morass which he considered not safe. Seeing a peasant lad, he asked whether the bog was hard at bottom "O, yes, quite hard," replied the youth. The gentleman rode on, but his horse began to sink. "You rascal," shouted he, "did you not say it was hard at bottom?" "So it is," rejoined the rogue, "but you're not half way to it yet."

WHEN a stranger treats me with want of proper respoot," said a philocophic poor man, "I comfort myself with the reflection that it is not myself he slights, but my old shabby coat and hat, which, to say the truth have no particular claims to admiration. So if my hat and coat choose to fret about it, let them: it is nothing to me."

AT no moment of difficulty does a husband, knowing his own utter helplessness, draw so closely to his wife's side for comfort and assistance, as when he wants a button sewed on his shirt collar.

TWO Million Dollars per year is the rate at which Republicanism has been paying off the State debt of Pennsylvania. Governor Geary and the Republican party stand pledged to continue it at this rate.

WHEN vice wants a license to desalote, it only has to ask the Democratic party for a passport. When treason would disrupt a nation, it found in Democracy an abettor.

ASA PACKER says he never read the letter of General Rosecrans. Has he ever read the Ten Commandments or the Revenue laws?

IF running after the women be a sin, it is one which is very easily checked. All that's necessary is for the women to stop running away from the men.

IT will be an evil hour for Pennsylvania when Assemblyman C. L. Pershing has the opportunity to turn his votes into judicial decisions.

A MAN in the right, though he be alone, is in the majority, for God is on his side, and is multitudinous above all populations of the earth.

NONE of the Democratic papers appear to have heard from Omaha since the election. Reason—Increased Republican majorities.

IT is estimated by intelligent parties that the Republican majority in Ohio will reach 40,000.

AFTER the election the Democratic P's which they are now so anxiously praying for, will be Pity Pity Poor Packer.

GREAT excitement exists in Cincinnati over the attempt of the Democracy to abolish the Bible from the public schools.

FOR Supreme Judge of Pennsylvania we want two things—a lawyer and a loyal man.

REMEMBER! REMEMBER!! REMEMBER!!!

Let every Voter

REMEMBER

That every vote cast for Asa Packer is a vote cast for Disloyalty Repudiation and Ruin.

Let every Taxpayer

REMEMBER

That every vote cast for Asa Packer is a vote cast for an increased public debt and nereased taxes.

Let every Soldier

REMEMBER

That every vote cast for Asa Packer is a vote cast for the man who sympathized with and entertained rebels in the day of our country's trial and who ran off to Europe in a cowardly manner to avoid the dangers and responsibilities of an American citizen, when every man's aid and sympathy were needed to save the Union.

Let every Honest man

REMEMBER

That Asa Packer ran away from Mauch Chunk to escape the payment of his honest taxes and that his dishonesty in this particular enabled him to escape from $32,000 of taxes by paying $8,95 and that the balance of the $32,000 was laid upon the taxpayers of the State.

Let every one

REMEMBER

That Pennsylvania needs a loyal and an honest man for Governor, and that that man is John W. Geary.

Let every one

REMEMBER

That Cyrus L. Pershing the copperhead candidate for Supreme Judge was a rebel sympathizer during the war and is now a bitter partisan, is only a third rate lawyer and utterly unfit for the office of Supreme Judge.

REMEMBER

That Democratic rule brought a debt of over $40,000,000 on the State and that a Republican administration has been paying it off at the rate of TWO MILLIONS a year.

PACKER'S GOSPEL.

The great apostle of modern Democracy, James Buchanan, proclaimed that his party favored free-trade because it would reduce the wages of the laboring man? He further declared that such a reduction of the tariff as would compel the laboring man to work for TEN CENTS A DAY would cover the country with benefits and blessings. That was not the poor man's but the rich man's gospel. It would suit Asa Packer first rate. He can soon make his twenty millions a hundred millions if he can get such laws passed as will compel his employees to work for ten cents a day. What cares he how the poor man and his family live? What does it matter to him? His business is to make money, drink wine, live on the fat of the land and hob nob with rebels like Jeff. Davis and Vallandingham. For this purpose he must have money. If he can coin it out of the poor laboring man's sweat and suffering he cares not. He is the advocate, for this very purpose, of FREE TRADE. The whole Democratic party is committed to Free Trade because its leaders are rich men and millionaires. Free Trade makes the rich richer and the poor, poorer. Laboring men if you want to work for TEN CENTS a day that men like PACKER may roll in wealth and luxury then vote the Democratic ticket. If you want to get good wages and lay up money enough to buy a home for yourself and little ones, then vote for Geary and protection to free American laborers of whom you are one.

OUTRAGEOUS TYRANNY.

It is no uncommon thing to have every act of a Republican administration stigmatized as one of tyranny. High handed outrages on Democrats of the ultra rebel stamp have been common things, to be seen in every copperhead paper for years. Another high handed outrage we have been looking for lately has not yet appeared, but this week's Gazette will doubtless contain it in flaming capitals. No less a personage than the high and mighty money king and railroad monopolist is the victim. A certain Satrap of Grant's, named Delano of the Internal Revenue Department is the offender. His crime is no more nor less than ordering a revision of the income returns and a re-assessment of such as carpet-bagged and escaped the former assessment. Now Asa belongs to this class, indeed it is principally composed of Democrats, and the outrageous character of the act is, that Asa, right in the midst of the campaign, will be obliged to give in on the $30,000 arrears of taxes, or leave his princely home and, neglecting important political business, go carpet bagging to Philadelphia and other places until Delano's assessors give up the chase. Now Asa has sworn and ran and traveled and prevaricated until he thought he had fairly and finally eluded the assessors and it is hard to have to repeat the thing so soon. It is an outrageous act of tyranny on the part of Grant's Satrap. Oh, poor, poor, Asa! Must he shell out the thirty thousand at last! Poor fellow! He has only made a million or two this year out of the coal strike. Alas! Alas! Even Asa, the great aristocrat, will at last have to come down with the cash. He didn't want to be honest but Uncle Sam compels him. What cruel tyranny! Where's Booth?

DON'T FORGET.

Voter don't forget that the Republican party is the only one that ever reduced the State debt and taxes. They increased for forty years under Democratic rule. Do you want any better reason for voting the Republican ticket?

MOB LAW IN PHILADELPHIA.

For nearly a year past, Philadelphia has been enjoying Democratic rule, the first time in a number of years. Prior to the advent of this Democratic Mayor and police, Philadelphia had the enviable reputation of being the safest and most orderly city in the Union. Since the Democracy, by fraud, obtained the control of the city police, murders have ran up to an average of one a day and the murderers are seldom even arrested. This is surely bad enough, but it was all eclipsed on Friday night last when these outrages culminated in deliberately planned riots. The Keystone club, a Democratic organization deliberately attacked and undertook to destroy the headquarters of the Republican Invincibles, after the members of that organization had adjourned, closed their rooms and gone home. This occurred in the neighborhood of Fifth and Chestnut streets. On the same night on Market street an organized attack was made, on an Irish Republican meeting and the meeting was broken up. In all these riotous proceedings, the police made little or no effort to keep the peace, preserve order or protect the persons and property of the unoffending citizens. The Mayor and chief of police were not to be found, no arrests were made, and the city authorities refuse to make any effort to arrest the offending parties. The riots were clearly prearranged for partisan purposes. The reign of terror threatened by Bill McMullin is already begun. Such is copperheadism. They are the promulgators of mob-law, riot, disorder and bloodshed. Who can vote the ticket of such a party? Friends of law and order can you?

FREE-TRADE IN ENGLAND.

The Democratic press for years has held up as an argument in favor of free-trade, the alleged prosperity of England though her policy was only partially free-trade. England did prosper for long years while she found a market here for all her manufactures under our Democratis free-trade administration. Since Republicanism came into power and adopted a protective policy, England has not been able to grow rich at ous expense, the profiits of American labor have been kept in America. England has felt the effect of it and to-day English laborers are clamoring for a protective tariff. Free-trade benefitted England while the Democratic party in the United States held the reins of power and sold out the best interests of American labor to British manufacturers. But free-trade tells a different story for England when she can no longer live at our expense; while we, delivered from British avarice have grown strong and rich in spite of all the immense losses of the war. Democracy in the face of such facts, is to day clamoring for a return to free-trade and slavery to British capitalists. Republicanism declares in favor of keeping ourselves free from business slavery to England and in favor of the American laborer keeping the profits of his own labor. All who approve of protection and desire prosperity will vote the whole Republican ticket.

$56,968,187 90.

Fifty-six millions, nine hundred and sixty-eight thousand, one hundred and eighty-seven dollars and ninety cents of the public debt have been paid off in seven months of Republican rule. Such is the official statement. The amount of each month since July 1st is as follows:

Paid in March,	April and May.....	$20 050 646 89
"	June.....	16 410 132 54
"	July.....	7 435 744 29
"	August.....	5 604 234 79
"	September.....	7 467 429 39
Total		$56 968 187 90

The public debt, like the State debt kept continually increasing while Democracy controlled the Cabinet. The moment Andy Johnson departed from the White House the work of retrenchment and reform in the Revenue department began and instead of an increase, each successive month has marked a decrease of the debt by millions. This is done too not by increased but with decreased taxes. Do the taxpayers want any better evidence as to what party they should keep in power. Vote the copperhead ticket from top to bottom if you want more Debt and more Taxes. If you want taxes reduced and debts paid, vote the whole Republican ticket. Taxpayer which will you choose?

VOTE for Geary the hero of two wars.

HOW IS IT?

Copperheads assert that the Republicans are notoriously corrupt and have squandered millions of the public funds. But they are unable to deny that in spite of these charges the Republicans have paid off an immense amount of the public debt, both of this State and of the Nation. Neither do they pretend to deny that these debts continually increased under Democratic rule. Now if Democrats have always increased the debts and the taxes, while practising THEIR peculiar economy, and Republicans have abolished taxes and paid off debts by THEIR peculiar extravagance, which ought the taxpayers to prefer? The Democratic economy that makes debts and taxes or the Republican extravagance that pays debts and abolishes taxes? The fact is we think modern Democrats have invented a new set of definitions. Economy in Democratic terms seems to mean keeping all they get of the public money and dividing it among themselves, leaving the debts to take care of themselves. Extravagance as they apply it to Republicans seems to mean the foolishness, as they deem it, of paying the public debt with the public funds instead of appropriating it as the spoils of office, which, according to the Democratic motto, belong to the victors. How is it? Vote the whole Republican ticket.

A MILLION A YEAR.

For forty long years of peace and plenty Democratic rule increased the State debt at the average rate of over a million dollars per year with continually increasing taxes. Republican rule in time of war with extraordinary expenses has paid over a million each year of the State debt, beside all the extraordinary expenses incident to the war. At the same time it has more than doubled the appropriations to our common schools and more than all has entirely abolished land taxes. Taxpayer whom will you support? Do you prefer taxes and Democracy or Republicanism and freedom from debt and taxes?

LOOK OUT FOR ROORBACHS.

Be on the lookout for all sorts of falsehoods on the eve of the election. It is the custom of our enemies. All sorts of unfounded stories are made up purposely to deceive, and circulated after it is too late to contradict them through the newspapers. Let no one believe them. They have already circulated false charges against all our candidates and will not hesitate to circulate anything out of which they have the least hope of making political capital. Beware we say once more, and be not decieved.

EVERY man that votes the Democratic ticket, votes for more debt and more taxes.

$75,000.

COPPERHEAD REFORM.

The cops cry aloud to be given the reins of government that they may inaugurate a reign of reform. Let us see how it would work. We took occasion ourselves to rebuke some things that were done last winter but they were not half as bad as the cops tried to do. One of the leading copperheads introduced a bill to increase the pay of members from $1000 to $1500, three-fourths of the cops voted for the bill and would have passed it had it been in their power but the Republicans defeated it and thereby saved the State in that single item $75,000. Such is the economy to which taxpayers are invited to lend their aid. If copperheads attempt such things in a hopeless minority, what would they do if they had a majority? Voter, pause and think before you vote for a single copperhead candidate.

HON. EDWARD SCULL.

The nomination of Mr. Scull is now made unanimous by the action of the Fulton County Committee. Mr. Scull's nomination gives full satisfaction, not only in the District but throughout the state. All agree that he is just the man for the place, that he will be an ornament to the Senate and a credit to the District. Let him have every Republican vote in Bedford County and Hiram Findley will be nowhere. With Scull, Long and Longenecker in the next Legislature, the interests of our District will be well cared for. The work of retrenchment and reform will find in them warm and able supporters.

GREENBACKS.

Voter have you a greenback in your pocket? Is it a one or a five or a ten dollar bill? It represents so much labor and it is a promise to pay by the government the sum represented on its face to you as the holder of that note. If you vote for Packer you vote for its repudiation, Democracy is to-day the advocate of repudiation, and Asa Packer is its representative in this state. If he is elected the influence of your own state will be cast in favor of robbing you of your hard earned wages. Can you vote such a ticket? If you don't wish to be robbed of your earnings, vote for Geary and the whole Republican ticket.

IT is not denied that Asa Packer used corrupt means to get the Democratic nomination for Governor. He has large railroad interests and the man that will use corrupt means to obtain a nomination will not hesitate to use corrupt means and abuse his official position, if elected Governor, to pass any railroad monopoly bill that would put money in his pocket. He is unfit to be trusted with such opportunities and should never be permitted to occupy the Gubernatorial chair. Vote for Geary who has no railroad or mining monopolies to care for.

PERSHING is the first man ever nominated for the Supreme bench as a reward for partisan service. Politics should be kept out of the Courts and Judges should be appointed or elected alone because of their Judicial ability. Democracy has set the bad example of seating partisan politicians where none but able and impartial judges should be found. Let the people vote against the partisan and condemn the politician by voting for Judge Williams, who has given the best evidence of his fitness for the high office for whice he is nominated.

QUERY.

If the copperhead member of the Legislature tried, though in a hopeless minority, to increase the pay of member $75,000 in the aggregate what would they have done if they had been in majority? Is that what Cops call economy. That is the kind of economy that rolled up a State debt of $40,000,000 and laid a heavy tax on every foot of land in the State. The people want no more of that. They will vote for Geary and the Republican ticket.

NO GOUGING.

Major William Dibert our popular candidate for Sheriff, is the choice of the party by a fair vote. There was no gouging in his case. He is a clever man, a public spirited citizen and deserves to be elected. Give him every Republican vote and get your Democratic neighbor to vote for him too. Bedford county wants an entire change of party administration for a few years. Taxpayers will find it to their interest without regard to party.

Tax Payers of Bedford County

Would it not be to your advantage to have both parties represented in the Commissioner's office? Now is your opportunity. Vote for the Republican candidate for Commissioner. One man can not control the board, but the presence of an intelligent Republican might save the taxpayers of the county many a hard earned dollar. Think of this and speak of it to your neighbor on Tuesday next when you go to the polls.

IF wealth is to be made the test of fitness for office what will become of our country? Rich men able to buy office have become the bane of our politics. It is the corruption of men in search of office, and who are rich enough to bribe others, that has brought bribing and corruption into every State legislature in the country without regard to politics. Will the people encourage this sort of thing by voting for Asa Packer, who has nothing but his $20,000,000 to recommend him? Never!

WHAT HAS BECOME OF IT?

The copperhead administration have been collecting a building tax for two years to pay for the new poor house. What has been done with the TEN OR FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS thus collected. Who holds the purse? Is there any speculation on foot? Does anybody get 10, 15 or 20 per cent. interest for that money. Some tax-payers would like to know.

BONDS! BONDS!

Thrifty farmer or tradesman, have you invested the savings of years of hard toil in a government bond, a Seven-Thirty or a Five-Twenty? If you have, a vote for Packer or any other copperhead, will be a vote for its repudiation. Do you wish thus to throw away your savings? There is no security but to vote the whole Republican ticket.

SETTLE UP OLD SCORES.

There are a good many things that need probing in the management of our county finances. Our candidate for Auditor is just the man for this business. John P. Williams ought by all means to be elected. He might do much for the tax-payers of Bedford county by looking into the disposition of the public funds for some years past.

VOTE EARLY.

Go to the polls early. Vote at once. Then see that your neighbor votes. If put off until afternoon or evening something may occur to prevent your getting to the polls at all.

FRESHET IN PHILADELPHIA.—After a long period of drought, in which the city suffered from want of water, it has at last got an abundance on Saturday night and Sunday. What was here but a moderate rain, was a severe storm in Philadelphia, in which rain fell in torrents, causing the nearly dried up Schuykill to swell to a flood and overflow its banks, submerge portions of Race, Vine and Callowhill streets. The flood on the Schuykill is reported the most destructive since 1850. Floods are also reported in Baltimore and Washington doing much damage.

SOLDIERS

When you go to the polls remember that our candidates for the Legislature, Lieut. J. H. Longenecker and Capt. F. B. Long, were your companions in arms and well deserve your hearty support. You are fighting the same enemy now on a different field. Vote for the men who risked their lives for the Union.

THE well known tendency of the rich to oppress the poor will be greatly increased if such men as Asa Packer, with his $20,000,000 dollars is elected Governor. Patriotism, not wealth, should be the test of merit in a public officer Geary is poor but he served his country faithfully in two wars and well deserves to be re-elected Governor.

REPUBLICS aim to ameliorate the condition of the poor; the rich everywhere can take care of themselves. If such men as Asa Packer, having money without patriotism, are to be placed in power, our Republican institutions will soon be wrecked and we will be ruled by a set of Aristocrats, the worst kind of tyrants. Vote for Geary and Williams.

THE POOR HOUSE.

The reckless and extravagant management of the Poor House affairs, call loudly for a change in that department. On Tuesday our citizens can inaugurate that change by defeating the Democratic candidate for Director.

A NEW ADMINISTRATION.

The friends of a new order of things in county affairs, will do well to vote for William Phillips for county Treasurer. He is a sturdy farmer, a good honest man, and will take good care of the county's funds. Try him and you will not regret it.

THE downfall of every Republic in past ages has dated from the time when rich men obtained control of the offices. Democracy wishes to begin our downward course by electing Packer the millionaire. Let Packer and Democracy receive a withering rebuke in the ignominious defeat of their purse proud candidate.

BUSINESS MEN

You have a deep interest in the keeping of the public records. The condition and management of the Prothonatory's office call loudly for a change. Vote for J. W. Lingenfelter and try what good will come of a new administration.

BRING OUT THE VOTES.

See that every Republican voter is brought out on Tuesday. Let there be no laggards. Victory may depend on a single vote. IF voters are not at the polls in good time see that they are sent for.

PACKER is a rampant free-trader and would have the laboring man's wages reduced to the rate of European paupers in order that his already immense wealth might be increased. Vote for Geary, good wages and protection to American industry.

A GOOD CORONER.

No man in the county is better fitted to fill the duties of this office than Dr. A. S. Smith our candidate. Let him have a full vote.

TAX-PAYER, can you vote for Packer when you remember that by his dishonesty in defrauding the revenue out of $32,000 a a year, your own taxes were proportionately increased? Vote for Geary.

GOLD closed in New York, on Monday, at $1.29¼. The gold excitement of two weeks ago seems to have permanently reduced the price of gold. We hope it has also permanently reduced the number of gold gamblers.

Do you prefer Packer, the purse-proud aristocrat, the bloated-bondholder, the railroad monopolist and the rebel sympathizer or Geary the poor but honest man, the brave soldier of two wars? Answer at the polls.

LOOK out for spurious tickets they will be plenty and every effort will be made to get you to split your ticket. Listen to no such persuasion but get your ticket from a good Republican and vote the whole ticket.

SOLDIER, can you vote for Packer and Pershing, when you remember that they voted against allowing you the privilege of voting when you were fighting the battles of your country?

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

Dont allow yourself to be persuaded to vote for a single man on the Copperhead ticket. Don't scratch a single man. We want every man elected.

WHAT could be more humiliating to the people of Pennsylvania than to have it said that her Governorship was bought with Packer's gold. Vote for Geary the Soldier and Statesman.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, October 4—The movements in seeds are of an unimportant character. Clover may be quoted at $7 50@8; timothy at $4 25@4 62½; and flaxseed at $2 55 per bushel.

The flour market is dull, there being very little inquiry either for shipment or home consumption, and prices, in sympathy with the late decline in wheat, favor buyers. The transactions are confined to a few hundred barrels, including extras at $6@6 25 per barrel; spring wheat extra family at $7@7 50; Pennsylvania do. do. at $6 25@7; Indiana and Ohio do. do. at $6 75@7 75, and fancy lots at $8@9 25, according to quality. Rye flour sells strongly at $6 25@6 37½. Prices of corn meal are nominal.

New Advertisements.

FORTY THOUSAND CASES OF GOODS were shipped from our house in One Year, to families, clubs, and merchants, in every part of the country, from Maine to California, amounting in value to over

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Our facilities for transacting this immense business are better than ever before. We have agents in all the principal cities to purchase goods from the Manufactures, Importers, and others, for Cash, and often at an immense sacrifice from the original cost of production.

Our stock consists, in part, of the following goods:—

Shawls, Blankets, Quilts, Cottons, Ginghams, Dress Goods, Table Linen, Towels, Hosiery Gloves, Shirts, Corsets, &c., &c.

Silver-Plated Ware, Spoons plated on Nickel Silver, Dessert Forks, five-bottled plated Castors, Britannia Ware, Glass Ware, Table and Pocket Cultery, in great variety.

Elegant French and German Fancy Goods, Beautiful Photograph Albums, the newest and choicest styles in Morocco and Velvet Bindings, Morrocco Travelling Bags, Handkerchief and Glove Boxes, &c.

Gold and Plated Jewelry, of the newest styles.

We have also made arrangements with some of the leading Publishing Houses, that will enable us to sell the standard and latest works of popular authors at about one-half the regular price:—such as BYRON, MOORE, BURNS, MILTON, and EBYSON'S WORKS, in full Guilt and Cloth bindings,—and hundreds of othes.

These and everything else for

ONE DOLLAR FOR EACH ARTICLE.

We do not offer a single article of merchandise, that can be sold by regular dealers at our price. We do not ask you to buy goods from us unless we can sell them cheaper than you can obtain them in any other way,—while the greater part of our goods are sold at about

ONE-HALF THE REGULAR RATES.

We want good reliable agents in every part of the Country. By employing your spare time to form clubs and sending us orders, you can obtain the most libral commissions, either in Cash or Merchandise, and all goods sent by us will be as represented, and we guarantee satisfaction to every one dealing with our house.

Agents should collect ten cents from each customer and forward to us in advance, for Descriptive Checks of the goods we sell.

The holders of the Checks have the privilege of either purchasing the article thereon described, or of exchanging for any article mentioned on our Catalogue, numbering over 350 different articles,—not one of which can be purchased in the usual way for the same money.

The advantages of first sending for Check are these: We are constantly buying small lots of very valuable goods, which are not on our catalogues, and for which we issue checks till all are sold; besides, in every large club we will put checks for WATCHES, QUILTS, BLANKETS, DRESS PATTERNS, or some other article of value, giving some members of the club an opportunity of purchasing an article for about one quarter of its value.

In every order amounting to over $50, accompanied by the cash, the Agent may retain $2.00, and in every order of over $100, $2,00 may be retained to PAY THE EXPRESS CHARGES.

This offer is more especcially to assist Agents in the Western and Southern States, but is open to all customers.

COMMISSIONS.

Agents will be paid ten per cent. in Cash or Merchandise, when they FILL UP THEIR ENTIRE CLUB, for which below we give a partial List of Commission;

FOR AN ORDER OF $30, from a club of Thirty, we will pay the Agent, as commission, 28 yards Brown or Bleached Sheeting, Good Dress Pattern, Wool Square Shawl, French Casimere Pants and Vest Pattern, Fine Large White Counterpane, etc., etc., or $3.00 in cash.

FOR AN ORDER OF $50, from a club of Fifty, we will pay the Agent, as Commission, 45 yds. Sheeting, One pair heavy Wool Blankets, Poplin Dress pattern, Handsome wool Square Shawl, Silver-Case Watch, etc., etc., or $5.00 in cash.

FOR AN ORDER OF $100, from a Club of One Hundred, we will pay the Agent, as commission, 100 yds. good yard-wide Sheeting, Coin-Silver Hunting Case Watch, Rich Long Wool Shawl, Suit of all Wool French Casimere, etc., or $10 in cash.

We do not employ any Travelling Agents, and customers should not pay money to persons purporting to be our agents unless personally acquainted.

SEND MONEY ALWAYS BY REGISTERED LETTERS.

Miscellaneous.

A PACIFIC RAILWAY

GOLD LOAN.

$6,500,000.

We beg leave to announce that we have accepted the agency of the

KANSAS PACIFIC RAILWAY CO.,

For the sale of its

New Seven Per Cent.

Thirty Year Gold Loan, Free from Tax.

This Loan amounts to $6,500,000.

First Mortgage Land-Grant and Sinking Fund Bonds,

secured upon the extension of the Railway from near Sheridan, in Kansas, to Denver, Colorado, a distance of 237 miles, of which 12 miles are completed, and the rest is under construction. It is also a Mortgage upon the Road, the Rolling Stock and Franchise of this first-class Railway, besides now running through the State of Kansas,

And in successful operation for 437 miles west of the Missouri River, and earning already enough to meet all of its expenses and existing obligations, besides

More than the Interest upon this new Loan.

In addition to this the Bonds are also secured by a first mortgage of the Government Land Grant of Three Million Acres, extending in alternate sections on either side of the track, from the 394th mile post in Kansas to Denver. The proceeds of the sale of these lands are to be invested by the Trustees in the 7 per cent Bonds themselves up to 120 or in U. S. bonds, as A Sinking Fund for the Redemption of the Bonds.

The lands embrace some of the finest portions of the magnificent Territory of Colorado, including a coal field and pinery. The company also holds as an asset another tract of

Three Millions of Acres in the State of Kansas, and although not pledged as a security for this Loan, their possession adds largely to the Company's wealth and credit. We estimate the Value of the Company's property, covered by this mortgage, at $23,000,000 net, while the Loan is merely $6,500,000.

The bonds have

Thirty Years to Run,

from May 1, 1869, and will pay

Seven per cent. Interest in Gold, semi-annually, on May 1 and Nov. 1, and are

Free from Government Taxation,

the Company paying the tax.

The PRINCIPAL of the loan is made PAYABLE in GOLD, in the City of New York, but each coupon will be at the option of the holder, without notice, at the following rates.

Payable in Frankfort, London or New York

On $1,000 Bond in N. Y., $35 (gold) each half year
" " London....£7 5s. 10 " "
" " Frankfort 87 fl. 30 krtzs., " "

The Agents of the Loan, before accepting the trust had the condition of the Road, and the country through which it runs, carefully examined. They are happy to give the Loan an emphatic endorsement as a

First Class Investment, in every respect perfectly sure, and in some essential even Better than Government Securities.

The Bonds will be sold for the present at 96, and accrued Interest, both in Currency,

the Agents reserving the right to advance the rate.

The attention of investors is invited to these well-secured bonds, which we recommend as one of the most profitable investments in the market.

Gold and Government Securities taken in payment at their market value, without commissions.

Real Estate.

TWO FARMS AT PRIVATE SALE.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY CHEAP REAL ESTATE.

A FARM IN MORRISON'S COVE.

A SPLENDID FARM WITHIN TWO MILES OF BEDFORD.

The subscriber will sell at private sale, on very reasonable terms, and at reduced prices, the following described, very valuable real estate, viz:

A TRACT OF LAND situated in Morrison's Cove, about one mile from Lafayettesville, and four miles from Woodberry, in Middle Woodberry twp., containing 102 acres, more or less, about 45 acres cleared and under fence, with one and a half story log house, log barn, blacksmith shop and other out buildings, adjoinng lands of Jackson Stuckey on the east, Christ. Kochenderfer on the north, John Keagy on the west, and Ignatius Brant's heirs on the south. This can be made one of the neatest and most pleasant little farms in the Cove with very little expense. There is an abundance of water, plenty of fruit and splendid timber upon it—all that is necessary to make it desirable.

ALSO.

A MOST EXCELLENT TRACT OF LIME STONE AND RIVER BOTTOM LAND, within two miles of Bedford, containing 228 acres, about 150 acres of which are cleared and in a high state of cultivation and the balance well timbered. There are excellent new buildings erected thereon with a well of never failing water at the door. There are two orchards of choice fruit upon it. 75 acres of meadow, (River Bottom) can be cultivated with trifling expense. The upland is in a good state of cultivation, well set with clover and under good fence. There is sufficient timber upon it to pay for the farm several times if thrown into the Bedford market. UNION SCHOOL.—The Union School will open on Monday next. The Teachers in charge for the coming winter are Messrs. J. A. Tomlinson, S. D. Middleton, and Misses Jennie Smith, Mary Holderbaum, Celia Schaeffer and Maggie O'Connor.

BLANK receipts for the use of Treasurers of school Districts, and Justices' receipts for county taxes, Executions, Subpœnas, Summonses, all kinds of blanks for school Directors, Judgment notes, Deeds &c., &c., always on hand at the INQUIRER Book Store.

AN ELEGANT SHEET.—The new Illustrated Circular of the Iron City College is doubtless the finest thing of the kind ever gotten up in this country. Copies of the same can be obtained free of charge, on addressing the Principals, Smith & Cowley, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GO to the INQUIRER Book Store for stationery, school books, miscellaneous books, news papers, magazines, pens, pencils, inks and every thing in that line. Don't be afraid to go in and look around anyhow—No harm done if you don't buy.

THE attention of parties in want of Anthracite coal is called to the advertisement of John W. Barndollar in another column. Mr. Barndollar is an enterprising business man and we cheerfully bespeak for him the patronage of such as are in need of anything in his line.

DONT FAIL to read the proceedings of the Rail-road meeting. Now is the time to put our shoulders to the wheel and push along the car of progress. An earnest, vigorous effort now will ensure the success of our rail-road project and restore to Bedford her old-time prosperity.

WE call attention to the "Card" of E. O. Thompson, Merchant Tailor, 908 Walnut St., Philadelphia. We are informed that the fine workmanship and desirable styles of his Clothing suit every customer, and that the most fastidious are especially pleased with his mode of Pantaloon Cutting, which is announced as a specialty of his Establishment.

DAMAGED BY FROST.—We learn that the frost in the early part of last week did considerable damage in parts of Middle and South Woodberry and Cumberland Valley townships. Corn and garden vegetables grapes &c., were injured to a greater or less extent. In this vicinity damage was prevented by the prevalence of dense fogs.

AT HOME.—Dr. A. C. Vaughn dropped into our office a day or two ago while at home on a visit. He is as genial as of old and seems to be enjoying the fresh air and freedom of the country. He is engaged in manufacturing and introducing to the public his various inventions. May success ever attend him.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. John Ramsey of Bloody Run died very suddenly on Monday last. He was in his usual health and had gone with a friend to visit his neighbor, Mr. Ebbert and had been in the house but a short time when it was observed that he was unwell and some one ran to his assistance but he expired in a few minutes.

BANK SUSPENSION.—The banking house of O. E. Shannon, suspended payment on Friday last. The suspension created considerable excitement for a few days, but it has now for the most part subsided. It is presumed, by those conversant with the affairs of the bank, that the assets will be sufficient to meet all liabilities and that no one will lose any money thereby.

RAILROAD MEETING.—On Wednesday evening of last week, the Court House was well filled by an audience who had come thither, pursuant to previous notice, to listen to addresses on the subject of a railroad for Bedford, to connect with some route already surveyed.

On motion, the meeting was organized by the appointment of Hon. S. L. Russell, President, Hon. George W. Gump and Dr. Geo. Anderson, Vice-Presidents, and M. A. Points, Esq., and Geo. H. Mengel, Secretaries.

Hon. A. King then proceeded to address the meeting, and after a short, felicitous address, which was attentively listened to, he introduced as the orator of the evening, Col. James Worrall, of Harrisburg, who is distinguished throughout the country for the eminent part which he has borne in promoting the interests of Railroads. In a graphic manner he portrayed our present isolation and the backward, antiquated state of Bedford. He declared the route proposed by him, to lead from Harrisburg to connect with the Connellsville Railroad, was a better route than that of the Pennsylvania Railroad; while Bedford enjoys all the advantages of position and natural wealth, yet she is in statu quo, and might as well be at the North Pole, for her energies really seem frozen up. He offered himself to incur the preliminary expense of surveying, engineering and arranging the first details incident to building a road.

Hon. D. Watson Rowe, Assistant Law Judge of this Judicial District, then eloquently addressed the meeting. He contrasted his home, Greencastle, with Bedford, and showed how steam had dispelled the Rip Van Winkle sleep of his region and breathed life and vigor into every business interest. That if we should get a through Railroad, Bedford Springs would rival the celebrated Springs of Vichy and Baden Baden.

On motion, a Committee, with two books, was appointed by the President, to receive subscriptions—one from Bedford to Mt. Dallas and one from Bedford to Bridgeport.

On motion, the proceedings of the meeting were directed to be published in the papers of this county.

On motion, adjourned.

S. L. RUSSELL,
President.

POOR HOUSE MEETING.—Pursuant to the call of a number of citizens opposed to building on the present Poor House property, a meeting was held in the Grand Jury Room on Wednesday evening of last week and the following resolutions were passed.

1. Resolved by the tax-payers of Bedford County, in Mass Meeting assembled, that we are opposed to the building of an expensive Poor House, on the present Poor House property, that we believe the said property to be unsuitable for the purpose of a Poor House, and that the same ought to be sold, and a suitable property be purchased, on which a comfortable, plain and comparatively inexpensive building should be erected.

2. Resolved, that we know of no way to carry out our wishes except by nominating candidates for county Commissioners and Poor Director, without respect to party who will pledge themselves to our view.

3. Resolved, that we do hereby nominate Samuel Shafer of Union twp., for County Commissioner, and Henry Moses of Bedford twp., for Poor Director, as an independent ticket.

4. Resolved, that Wm. Cheneworth, P. H. Shires and Thomas Hughes, be a committee of three to inform the candidates of their selection and to ascertain if they accept the nominations and will pledge themselves to carry out our wishes.

5. Resolved, that we hereby recommend to the incoming Legislature the appointment of commissioners, for the sale of the present Poor House property, and the buying of another.

WHO WANTS A SEWING MACHINE?—We have a new $55,00 Grover and Baker sewing machine which we will dispose of on easy terms to any one who wants a good machine: and who does not want a good sewing machine?

ALSO a new Singer Sewing Machine for sale as cheap as can be sold in the community and on the best of terms.

ALSO a Seventy-five dollar Machine of the American Buttonhole and Overseaming Sewing machine Company's Manufacture on the most favorable terms.

Either of the two last named machines can be seen in operation in town, where they have given the most complete satisfaction. Further particulars can be had by calling at, or writing to, the INQUIRER Office Bedford Pa.

"PUSH trade or it will push you." There is probably no more enterprising House in the country than that of Lawrence D. Ditz & Co., of Baltimore. Importers and dealers in English, French and German Notions and Fancy Goods. They have most certainly pushed trade until their immense facilities are known all over the country. We direct attention to their advertisement in to-day's issue.

A Watch, pair of Blankets, or Shawl for One Dollar appears almost impossible, but such may be had and hundreds of other useful articles by patronizing Parker & Co's., "One Dollar Sale."

Their system of doing business has been examined by the authorities and a Decision rendered from the Internal Revenue department at Washington dated Nov. 4th 1868, declaring their business perfectly fair and legitimate and entirely different from the numerous gift enterprises. Of course all do not get watches, blankets, &c., for one dollar, but in every large Club, one of these articles are sold for one dollar, as an extra inducement, and some member of the club has the chance of obtaining it. A new feature introduced by this enterprising firm, is to pay their agents in either cash or merchandise and to pre-pay the express charges. No better opportunity can be offered to either Ladies or Gentlemen, having leisure time, than to form clubs for this firm.

PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE.—The rapidly increasing sale, unprecedented popularity and beneficient and lasting results of the Constitution Bitters, are alike subjects of comment and astonishment. Mild and certain in their action on the animal economy, prompt in operation, producing none of the ill effects incident to Bitters generally vended. For the prevention and mitigation of seasickness they are pleasingly adapted. For counteracting the deleterious effects resulting from a change of water and for irregular diet they are unsurpassed. They are the antidote for those derangements consequent upon the inhalations and surroundings of the pestiferous exhalations of miasma arising from the swamps, morasses and turbid waters of the West, which contain so large a percentage of putrescent and decaying animal and particularly vegetable substances. They are sold by all druggists.

What the people want, Seward's Cough Cure.

A RUNAWAY VELOCIPEDE.—At the Altoona Fair last week one of the chief objects of attraction was a steam velocipede. When brought upon the course it seems this singular piece of locomotive mechanism became unmanageable and ran off with the man who undertook to ride it, throwing him to the ground and inflicting serious injury. We have heard of velocipedes becoming unmanageable and flooring their riders in a style much more entertaining to lookers on than to the riders, but this is the first instance in which we have heard of one running off with its rider. That velocipede needs looking after.

CORRESPONDENCE.

STONERSTOWN OCT. 4th, 1859.

EDITOR INQUIRER:

"Great Mass Meeting in Stonerstown—Democratic rally, Mr. Pershing and other eminent speakers to be present."

The above was the inscription which we noticed in blazing characters placed in the town and country around. We must confess that we were somewhat delighted with the idea of hearing some eminent speakers of that faction once in our own town. It would have been a rare treat. The time for speaking arrived, all the prominent democrats of the country had arrived, six in number, all aglow. The hill upon which the old schoolhouse stands was ascended, our worthy old squire leading the van, (he will have to lead the same van up Salt river after Tuesday next). On the way all the stores, shops and private dwellings were canvassed, pleading for all, both great and small to turn out; and verily we believe they did turn out, for in numbering the entire assemblage we found as follows: twelve boys, nine republicans and twenty-one democrats, speakers included. Speakers were called—B. F. Myers representing Mr. Pershing, made one of those telling speeches which characterized him during our country's struggle for freedom. We presume of course that Mr. Dickerson was the "other eminent speakers" as he was all that was present. Mr. Dickerson confined himself to obnoxious law, &c., but never once intimated to his hearers the cancellation of eight millions of our State Debt under those obnoxious laws. Poor B. F., we felt for him; he plead like a hungry kitten for a crumb of bread, to just try us once and see what we will do. Oh! B. F., you are a little too soon, we have not yet forgotten what you did do, and to know what you are doing now, we need only look at the financial condition of our own county—we have a fine specimen of democratic power at home—we have had sufficient, we want no more. K.

A CARD.

When I returned after a short absence, I was met by kind friends who said that the report was all around Bedford, that "Shannon was broke up and run off" &c., &c.,

I was happy to find myself a living contradiction of the story, and to find my property all standing in its accustomed place.

I owe some money and intend to pay it. I do not owe those who have found it pleasant to do the most talking.

If I had been disposed to give up or break up, I might have pocketed enough by this time to have made a fashionable break; but it is not my style.

The last dollar will employed in paying the last cent of indebtedness with a well grounded hope of $30,000 or $40,000 left with any kind of good luck.

THE Adjourned Court of last week was sparsely attended. But few persons were present beside Jurymen, Attorneys, clients and witnesses. But little business was transacted though the Court continued in session until Saturday noon. Hon. Judge Rowe presided. The following cases were tried:

S. S. Fluck, et al. vs. James Bowser—Jury called and Court ordered a non suit to be entered:

James Patton vs. Samuel Heffner, et al.—Tresspass. Verdict for Defendants.

Frederick Miller vs. John McIlvaine—Breach of Promise—mis-trial, Jury failing to agree.

Samuel Mizell vs. East Providence Twp.—Tresspass. Verdict for Plaintiff. Damages $103,75.

THE Kemble Furnace at Riddlesburg is proving successful beyond the most sanguine expectations of the proprietors. A new stack is to be built next year which will double the capacity of the furnace. Give us a railroad to Bedford and in a few years we will have similar works in the vicinity of Bedford. It is the only way to make our county prosperous. We must build railroads and develop our mineral wealth. When we do this the money will begin to return to us which for generations has been sent away to enrich other and more enterprising communities. It is with the people of Bedford to say whether this, much wished for, prosperity shall be attained in the next year or two or whether they will leave it for another generation.

THE language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasure of food, the beauties of landscape, the joys of companionship, the riches of literature, or the honors of station and renown, must preserve their health. The effect of foul, injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshing sleep, low spirits, feverish burnings, etc., which are the symptoms of that horrid disease, Dyspepsia, which assumes a thousand shapes, and points toward a miserable life and premature decay. PLANTATION BITTERS will prevent, overcome and counteract all of these effects. They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage.

THE WEATHER.—The latter part of last week was as fine as could be desired; clear and bright and pleasantly cool, everybody was delighted with it. Saturday evening witnessed a change to clouds and a brisk rain which continued to fall in gentle showers until Sunday night. The rain has done a vast amount of good, swelling the streams and starting the springs that had failed during the dry weather. besides greatly benefiting the pastures and Fall grain. Since Monday morning the weather has been variable, changing frequently and alternating from, cool, dark, cloudy weather, with showers, to clear, bright, warm sunshine; the usual concomitants of early Autumn.

REDUCTION OF TELEGRAPH RATES.—We are informed by the Agent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, that they have made a reduction of about 25 per cent. on their old rates. This is a liberal response to the present demand for cheaper telegraphing, and the company deserves credit for its prompt and liberal action in this particular. Let other companies follow the example set them by the Union Telegraph Company and the public will appreciate their action by increased patronage.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?—Let every Republican see to it personally that he is registered. Don't depend upon any one else, but go to the Assessor yourself, and go at once, so that there may be no mistake about it. Naturalized citizens must present their certificates thereof to the Assessor when applying for registration, unless they have been voters in the district for five consecutive years.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at hal the price. tf.

Let Us Protect Ourselves.

The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them, to some extent, from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom; it is prudence; it is common sense to provide against such contingencies, by taking an ANTIDOTE IN ADVANCE; in other words, by fortifying the system with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the most complete protective against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that has ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth where HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS can be procured, does so voluntarily; for, as surely as truth exists, this invaluable TONIC and ALTERATIVE would restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the nervous it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed constipation it also affords speedy and permanent relief.

In all cases of fever and ague the BITTERS is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of billious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the HOSTETTER BITTERS professes to subdue. To those who have not made the experiment we cordially recommend an early application of the BITTERS whenever they are stricken by disease of the digestive organs.

THOSE who have an itching head should use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer to stop it.

The electors of Middle Woodberry township to meet at the house of Henry Fluke in the village of Woodberry.

The electors of Woodberry Borough to meet at the house of Wm. M. Pearson, in said Borough.

At which time and places the qualified electors will elect by ballot:

ONE PERSON for the office of Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON, in conjunction with the counties of Somerset and Fulton for the office of State Senate for Pennsylvania.

TWO PERSONS, in conjunction with the counties of Somerset and Fulton, for the office of Members of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON, for the office of Prothonotary, Register, Recorder and Clerk of the several courts of Bedford county.

ONE PERSON, for the office of Sheriff for said county.

ONE PERSON, for the office of Treasurer for said county.

ONE PERSON, for the office of Commissioner for said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Poor Director for said county.

ONE PERSON for County Auditor for said county.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That every person excepting Justices of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislature, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be eligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an ac relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1819, further provides as follows, viz:

"That the Inspector and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 7 o'clock in the morning of the SECOND TUESDAY OF OCTOBER, and each said Inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And incase the person who has received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy still continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several Assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election during the whole time such election is k

Farm, Garden & Household.

SELECTING CHOICE SEEDS.

The finest and best varieties of the cereals have generally been originated by the selection of the largest and best filled ears at harvest time, and propagating from them until large quantities of seed were obtained and disseminated. The Potato Oat which has been so long celebrated for its great weight and productiveness was propagated from a single plant of extraordinary size which a gentleman found growing in his field in Cumberland, England. Every farmer should endeavor to obtain a new variety of seed or to refresh or renew an old one by selecting the best heads of wheat, oats, barley or rye at the time of harvesting, and carefully propagating from them, until, in the course of time, enough will be obtained to supply himself and all his neighbors with all they may need. If this were done we would not hear so much about the deterioration of cereal crops.

The falling off in the acreable yield of the wheat crop is partly occasioned by the use of worn out seed, and partly by superficial tillage. It is vain to expect a good crop of any kind from deteriorated seed, sown on impoverished soil. When to these evils are added shallow plowing and the want of draining, manuring, and a rotation of crops, the wonder is, not that the crops are light, but that they are not still lighter. In preparing land for wheat, stagnant water should be got rid of, grass and weeds eradicated, and if the soil is not possessed of the necessary ingredients, they should be supplied by manure.

PLANT ORCHARDS.

No matter whether your farm is small or large, don't rest content until you have an orchard of fruit trees. "We do not advise farmers indiscriminately," says The Countryman "to undertake to raise fruit for market. Every one should judge for himself as to the feasibility of such an enterprise. But we do say to every farmer, raise fruit, or try to do so, at least for the use of your own family. It will largely pay in pleasure and in health, if you never sell a dollar's worth. In selecting varieties, choose those kinds that usually do well in your locality. Deal, if possible, with reliable fruit dealers, rather than with agents who are strangers to you. And don't set out an orchard under the delusion that setting out the trees will be about all the work that will be necessary. In this day of many enemies to fruit and fruit trees, it may be said that eternal vigilance is the price of fruit. Land devoted to fruit trees need not be worth less to the owner. Some valuable crops can be raised in the orchard almost until the trees become old enough to bear; and by the time they reach bearing age, in this case, there will probably be a market close enough. But, as we said above, if you never sell a dollar's worth of fruit, your orchard assuredly will if properly attended to, pay you and your family, in health and comfort for all your labor and expenses."

MAKING PIGS PROFITABLE.

A correspondent of the Western Rural describes the method of making pigs profitable as follows:

I saw in your paper of a late date an inquiry as to the way by which to make pigs profitable. I would say in the first place, keep no more than is sufficient to eat what feed you have. If one pig will eat it, give it to him; it is better than to feed it to two.

In the next place have a good, warm, dry place for them to sleep in with plenty of clean straw changed twice a week.

I raised nine pigs last season from a Suffolk sow and a Chester boar; fed on milk and corn, mostly in the ear, and all the milk they would drink. They averaged 217 lbs dressed, when eight months old. Keeping hogs poor one year and fat the next has exploded with me years ago. I recollect having two pigs of a neighboring farmer in 1845. I fed mine well during winter, on corn and slops of the house. He fed his so as just to keep them alive. After about four months I saw his pigs and said to him: "Our pigs do not look as though they were of the same litter." He said they did not but that he would make as much pork in the fall as mine. I told him I would remember it, for if I was a fool it was time I knew it. I slaughtered mine when they were fourteen months old. One weighed 367, the other 467 pounds. He kept his one month longer, and one weighed 232, and the other 238 pounds.

If I had not much milk, I should prefer corn, rye and oats, ground in about equal parts, scalded and let stand until it ferments.

PERSUASION BETTER THAN FORCE.—The American Stock Journal says: "We sometimes see men having the care of and driving a team of horses or mules, whipping the poor animals because they do not understand their wishes. Many a time the lead horse or mule is unmercifully beaten for no other reason than that the driver's order is not understood. If the driver, in such a case, should speak gently to the leader, pat it a few times on the neck to reassure it of his friendship, take hold of the bridle and lead it a few steps in the direction he wishes to go, and all this without any excitement or anger on his part, the leader will always do his best to please him. In driving a horse to a carriage, however gentle and well trained he may be, something may happen to alarm or frighten him—this is no fault of his—he cannot help it, all he needs is a word or two of encouragement, gently spoken, to reassure him of his master's care and presence, and that all is right. The driver should recollect that he gets alarmed or frightened too, sometimes, and would think hard of being whipped for it."

CLOVER AND TIMOTHY.—A. Hardley, in a communication to the North Western Farmer, gives what he regards as three important reasons why clover should always be grown with timothy: First, the clover, being taprooted, penetrates deeply, stands drought, mellows the soil, and the timothy grows much stronger and holds up the clover. Second, if sown for pasturage, the timothy almost universally prevents the clover from swelling cattle. Thirdly, timothy hay is too binding, especially for cattle, and clover too washy, (succu-lent,) hence both together are better than either alone.

To these the Country Gentleman adds, under the head of the first, that where grass comes in a rotation, it is of the utmost importance on a clay soil that at least a part of this grass be clover. It will serve to mellow and loosen the heavy soil in a remarkable degree, so that when turned over with a plow, it will not only be rich, but loose and friable.

HOGS WANT SULPHUR.—Whether hogs require sulphur as an essential to their health, or whether it is sought by them as a condiment, may not be known for certainty. But one thing is sure, they devour it with a greed whenever it is to be found. It is for this purpose, probably, that they eat large quantities of soft coal, which contains a large amount of sulphur. Perhaps this is the most economical method of supplying hogs with sulphur during the winter, when they require a good deal of carbon. But in the summer, it is better to feed it to them in substances that contain the less carbon, on account of their producing less heat. Mustard is one of the best things for this purpose, and on that account some of it should be sown into every pasture into which hogs are turned. If hogs are kept up, or are in small yards, it is well to supply them with wild mustard that grows in fields or highways, or to cultivate some of the better varieties for them. They will eat its leaves, flowers, seeds and stalks.

MEN talk about improving dairy products, and wonder why progress is so slow. We must go back and correct evils that have been so long in practise that they are overlooked or assumed to be right. We must learn how to get good healthy milk, and how to preserve it in good order. We must learn that cows, with full udders, cannot be raced from the pasture to the stable with impunity, and that dogs are a nuisance upon the dairy farms. When we begin to pay a little more attention to these matters, there will be less complaint about preserving the flavor of cheese in hot weather.

Honesty makes reputation, and honor preserves it.

The only way to make mankind happy is to make them better.

If fools would be content to act natural they would not be noticed.

I like them kind of boys who are always trying to lift half a ton.

Mankind don't want much excuse for pitching into the unfortunate.

Looking glasses won't lie but they tell some awful plain truths now and then.

How many people are there in this world whose characters are anonymous.

No man is fit to live in solitude unless he is as pure as the things that surround him.

Let the world understand that you can be spit upon, and you are a spit-box for life.

A dog is the only dependent that I know of upon whom you can always rely as a true friend.

Friendship is like pickled meat; to be sweet the brine wants to be changed once in a while.

My idea of a delightful woman is one who seems to love everybody, and in fact only loves her husband.

If you are going to help a man, be about it; promised assistance after a while is considered a debt.

Adam probably was never more tickled than when he discovered Eve, which shows how unnatural solitude is.

"The hog may not be thoroughly posted in arithmetic; but when you come to a square root he is there—the hog is."

WHY do young ladies whiten their faces? Because they think the powder will make them go off.

THERE is a phrenologist in London who can tell the contents of a barrel by examining its head.

SOME men keep savage dogs around their houses, so that the hungry poor who stop to get a bite must get it outside the door.

HERE is a literal translation of a pork butcher's sign in a French provincial city: "Batta, junior; slaughters hogs like his father."

A WESTERN paper, speaking of the sudden death of a man, says, "It was a dreadful blow to the family, which consisted of a wife, an adopted son, and a few boarders."

Do you seek consolation for your sorrow in drink? asked a pious old lady of an intemperate fellow, who was something of a wag. "Yes in a horn," was the laconic reply.

"WHY don't your father take a newspaper!" said a man to a little boy whom he caught pilfering his paper from the doorstep. "Cos he sends me to take it," answered the urchin.

AN Attorney, on being called to account for having acted unprofessionally in taking less than the usual fees from his client, pleaded that he had taken all the man had. He was thereupon honorably acquitted.

A couple of fellows who were pretty thoroughly soaked with bad whiskey got into the gutter. After floundering about for a few minutes, one of them said:—"Jim, let's go to another house—this hotel leaks."

A gentleman rode up to a public house in the country and asked, "Who is the master of this house?" "I am, sir," replied the landlord: "my wife has been dead about three weeks."

AN Irishman, just from the sod, was eating some old cheese, when he found to his dismay that it contained living inhabitants. "Be jabers," said he, "does your chase in this country have childer?"

AN IRISHMAN.—Isn't it pleasant to be surrounded by such a crowd of ladies?" said a pretty woman to a popular lecturer.

'Yes,' said he; but it would be pleasanter to be surrounded by one.'

AN IRISHMAN has defined nothing to be "a footless stocking without a leg." A description by another Emerald Islander is better. "What is nothing?" he asked. "Shut your eyes and you'll see it," said Pat.

A GENTLEMAN, on hearing a lady praise the eyes of a certain minister, wrote the following:

I can not praise the doctor eyes,
I never saw his glance divine;
For when he prays he shuts his eyes,
And when he preaches he shuts mine.

UPON a tombstone appeared this inscription:

"Here lies John Tug, snug as a bug in a rug."

A wag seeing this, and a stone near by with no inscriptions, wrote:

"Here lies John Tugger, snugger than the other bugger."

A candidate for auditor of public accounts was called upon for a speech. On rising, he commenced:—"Gentlemen, you have called upon me for a speech. I have none to make—have no prepared remarks. Indeed, I am no speaker. I do not desire to be a speaker, I only want to be an auditor."

AN Irish juror having applied to the judge to be excused from serving on account of deafness, the judge said: "Could you hear my charge to the jury, sir?" "Yes, I heard your Honor's charge," said Paddy. "but I couldn't make any sense out of it." He was let off.

AN Irish advertisement says a reward of five dollars is offered for the apprehension of Pat O'Flaherty, who last week stole a jackass, which same had on a pair of corduroy breeches, with blue eyes, and smokes a short pipe, much given to squinting, and likewise his shoes let down at the heel.

A CHILD on being shown the picture of "Daniel in the Lion's Den" was affected to tears. "Don't grieve, Pet," said the mother: "he was not devoured." "I'm not crying for that," was the reply: "but do you see that little lion in the corner, mamma! Well I'm afraid he won't get any, for Daniel is so small he won't go around."

IF you wish to experience a singular sensation, eat two pigs' feet and half a mince pie just before going to bed. Boggs has tried it, and says that in less than an hour he saw a snake as large as a hawser, devouring eight blue haired children, who had just escaped from a monster with sorrel eyes and red hot overcoat.

WHY ENDURE A LIVING DEATH?

The confirmed dyspeptic may almost say with St. Peter, "I die daily." The object of this article is not to remind him of his pangs, but to show him how to banish them forever. The means of immediate and permanent relief are proffered him in

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

And it is for him to say whether he will continue to endure a living death, or to put himself in a position to render life enjoyable.

LIVING ADVERTISEMENTS

Of the efficacy of this matchless vegetable stomachic are to be found in every city and town in the United States—healthy men and women rescued from torture by its use, and eager to bear testimony to its virtues. It differs from any other bitters in existence, in this especial particular—it is not alcoholic.

For such constitutions and systems as require for their invigoration a diffusive stimulant,

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Has been provided—a preparation in which the solid extracts of the finest restoratives of the vegetable kingdom are held in solution by a spirituous agent, purged of all deleterious constituents. The patient, in choosing between these two great antidotes, should be guided by his own condition. If in a very low state, from debility, the Tonic should be his selection; but in cases where the emergency is not so pressing, the Bitters is the specific required. Thousands find infinite benefit from taking each in turn. There is no phase of indigestion, Biliousness, Nervous Disease, or Physical Prostration, to which they are not adapted, and in which, singly or combined, they will not effect a cure.

EXCHANGE PAIN FOR EASE,

And Weakness for Strength. Get rid of the ailments which interfere with enjoyment; cast gloom and despondency to the winds; take a stronger hold of life, and, in short,

BECOME A NEW MAN!

Through the instrumentality of the most powerful and popular of all vegetable invigorants and correctives.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Biliousness, Indigestion, General Debility, and all the complaints which proceed from a want of proper action in the Liver, the Stomach, and the Bowels, are eradicated by a course of this great

CONSTITUTIONAL SPECIFIC,

Which not only combats and conquers diseases that have intrenched themselves in the system, but is the best known safeguard against all unhealthy influences. Persons whose occupations and pursuits subject them to the depressing effects of a close, unwholesome atmosphere should take it regularly, as a protection against the low fevers and other disorders which malaria engenders. Invalids who are

WASTING AWAY,

Without any special complaint, except a gradual declination of bodily strength and nervous energy, will find in the Bitters a fountain of vitality and vigor as refreshing and exhilerating as a pool in the desert to the sand-scorched and fainting travelers.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking, or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, and Limbs, etc. etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of spirits.

They are the Greatest and Best

BLOOD PURIFIERS EVER KNOWN,

And will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure. Keep your Liver in order. Keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

THE WHOLE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA SPEAK FOR THESE REMEDIES.

WHO WOULD ASK FOR MORE DIGNIFIED OR STRONGER TESTIMONY?

HON. GEORGE WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

"Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD,

Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes:

Philadelphia, June 1, 1868.

Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure.

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffness of the Joints and similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869. I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value. ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869. Mr. W. W. Middleton: This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c, A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869. Mr. Middleton: Dear Sir—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly, JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869. This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefitted by it.

JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869. This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment for the Rheumatism, which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved. L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869. Mr. Middleton: Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others.

JACOB BOWSER.

BEDFORD, May 16, 1869. Mr. W. W. Middleton: Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE.

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869. This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS GARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869. Mr. Middleton: Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does CURE, and doe, not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from the torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR THE

RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM of the AGE!

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the Hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted mere for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, givin it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

CITIZENS' CO-OPERATIVE

MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF BEDFORD, PA.

Incorporated, March, 1869, by Special Act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

This company is organized on the Co-Operative Mutual Plan.

The membership fee is graded according to the age of the applicant, and is lower than other mutual companies.

The payment of the membership fee entitles the member to a life policy.

Every member in this company has a vote in controlling the funds of the company, and has an equal share in the funds.

The amount of money paid is so little that every one can insure.

This Company is purely a HOME Company.

OFFICERS:

Hon. SAMUEL L. RUSSELL, Prest.
J. R. DURBORROW, Vice Prest.
E. F. KERR, Secretary.
O. E. SHANNON, Treasurer.

DIRECTORS:

J. M. SHOEMAKER, J. B. WILLIAMS,
T. H. LYONS, J. W. DICKERSON,
